

Ministry Residency Program at Denver Seminary

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY: PASTORAL RESIDENCY

LOCATION: Skyview Presbyterian Church

ABOUT: www.skyviewpca.org

POSITION SUMMARY: Do you realize that the median church in the U.S. has 75 regular participants in worship on Sunday mornings? Most pastors will pastor a church of less than 100 members. How does one do that? Skyview Presbyterian Church is a PCA Church (Presbyterian Church in America) of about 120 members and Skyview's Pastoral Residency Program is a wonderful opportunity for your consideration to learn about 'a generalist pastoral ministry.' A generalist pastoral ministry is a ministry in which the man learns to "wear a number of hats", while maintaining the important role of preacher of God's word. His priority is preaching, discipleship and praying. Yet, the generalist pastor must develop other gifts as well: vision casting, administration, managing, counseling, shepherding, delegating, recruiting, evangelism as well, public worship as other abilities.

Skyview Presbyterian Church, in conjunction with Denver Seminary, is offering this pastoral residency program that blends biblical and theological studies with practical leadership experience and opportunity in a generalist church ministry setting with feedback, evaluation and mentoring.

These years of hands-on experience in ministry leadership coupled with a Master of Arts or Master of Divinity degree should give the resident after completing this program a distinctive advantage when seeking ordination and full-time ministry opportunities in the Presbyterian Church in America or elsewhere.
